

Experience an intimate connection with five extraordinary women.

Ann Compton
Stories Behind The Headlines (March 22, 7:30pm)
Since 1974, when she became the first female reporter to cover the White House on a full-time basis, Ann Compton has traveled the world in the company of six presidents. From her award-winning coverage of 9/11 to her induction into the Journalism Hall of Fame, she has balanced her professional obligations with those of her own "first" family of four children. For unique insight into the Capitol stories behind the headlines, join the dynamic Ann Compton.

Valerie Bertinelli
Taking Back Your Life (January 25, 7:30pm)
For years Valerie Bertinelli was known as America's sweetheart, now she's known as an actress, single mom, author and a health and weight-loss activist. In her empowering talk "Taking Back Your Life," Valerie will recount her struggle with weight issues over the years, the lessons learned and the courage it takes to make such a profound change in her life, as well as the faith required to maintain it.

Diane Keaton
An Evening With Diane Keaton (May 10, 7:30pm)
Starring in more than 50 films, Oscar Award-winning actor Diane Keaton continues to draw audiences across all ages. Diane will speak candidly about the balance between her career, her work and her family. She will share the importance of creating that personal sanctuary to achieve inner and outer peace. From her personal insights to Hollywood tales, don't miss an evening with this extraordinary and real woman.
